SHIFT YOUR VOICE SERVICES TO THE CLOUD OVER TIME

Most traditional business phone services will be switched off by 2020. Is your business ready to make the move? There are so many options and technologies, we understand choosing the right path for your evolving needs is a big challenge.

Relax, you can take your time — a SIP solution delivered over the Spirit network puts the control back in your hands. Simply sit back and enjoy the convenience and functionality of a quality SIP service to expand your onsite PBX.

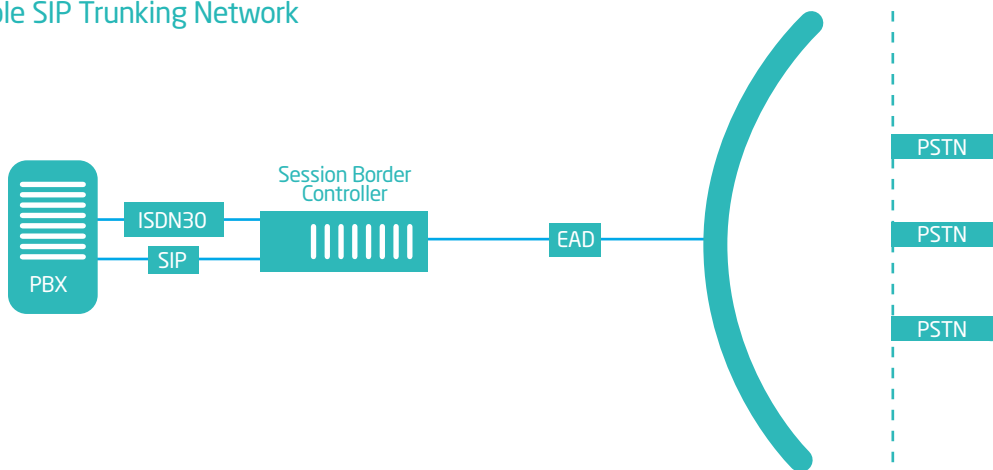

SIP, especially on Spirit's Super Fast independent network, provides a superior and cost-effective alternative to the ageing and soon-to-be decommissioned copper network across Australia.

Spirit Smart SIP

Spirit's smart SIP complements the traditional "box on the wall" at your premises by providing additional virtual phone lines, enabling you to make and receive voice calls directly over your data/Internet connection. Spirit Cloud SIP provides a digital way to access the telephone network, enabling you to benefit from a highly cost-effective solution that leverages your existing hardware.

To achieve optimal quality, stability and scale, Spirit Voice Solutions perform best when running over the Spirit network. We have a range of cost effective call plan options available and we'll work with you to find the best telephony service for your business, with no expensive configuration, maintenance or management required.
